Background

Australian print media provides an avenue to highlight the prevalence of farm related deaths and injuries. The process of media monitoring has been used by the National Farm Injury Data Centre (NFIDC) since 2005 to assist in the collection of information on farm injury events (fatal and nonfatal). This report focuses specifically on data involving quads (both on and off farms).

Method

iSENTIA (formerly Media Monitors Australia) is a privately owned company contracted by the NFIDC to scan approximately 2,500 daily, weekly and monthly publications Australia wide. Publications are scanned for various search terms nominated by the NFIDC. In relation to the monitoring of quad related injury events, the following search terms are used: “ATV re accidents, injuries or safety on farms or rural properties”, “Quad Bike” and/or “Quad bike in re to accidents, injuries or safety on farms or rural properties”.

Each day's articles are received via email in PDF format, are viewed for relevance and then entered into a Microsoft Excel database. Any quad related death that has been reported in the media is added to the Quad Related Deaths Register. The Access Liaison Officer at the National Coroners' Information System (NCIS) is notified of the fatal injury event and the NFIDC is then informed of the matching NCIS case number. This process allows for timely reporting of quad related fatality cases in Australia, as cases are added to the register regardless of their closure status i.e. open cases are included within the register. Once sufficient information is available from NCIS so that cause of death, mechanism of injury and intent can be accurately defined, these events can then be reported on more comprehensively.

Results

Deaths

There were approximately 1,900 print media articles received by the NFIDC from iSENTIA in 2015. A total of 15 quad related deaths were reported for this period. Table 1 provides a summary of the quad related fatal injury events:

- Of the 22 reported deaths, 15 (68%) occurred on a farm.
- Where information was available, 10 of the 20 reported deaths (50%) were rollovers.
- Three of the 22 reported deaths (13%), involved children under the age of 16 years.
- Thirteen of the 22 reported deaths (59%), involved persons over 50 years of age.
